NATIONALISTS WON'T
OPPOSE SINN FEIN

John Dillon Advises Followers
Not to Take Part in South
Elections.

3 CONSTABLES ARE KILLED

Several Hurt in Disorders
Which Include Stampede of Church Congregation.

DUBLIN, May 8.—John Dillon, chairman of the Nationalist party, will publish a letter to-morrow saying that he has advised his friends to take no part in the Southern elections. Such agreement as that reached between the Sinn Fein and Nationalists in the North, he declares, would be impossible, even if desirable, in the South.

The programme of the Sinn Fein was to secure a solid block, and the whole force of their organization will be directed to that object. If the Nationalists took part, continues Mr. Dillon, it could be only as opponents of the Republic and the contest would create bitter feelings and might result in disorder and bloodshed, for which he could not take responsibility, particularly at such a crisis in the fortunes of Ireland and in view of recent events and rumors of peace negotiations.

Opposing the Sinn Fein, he added, would lay the Nationalists open to the charge, however unjust, of supporting the auxiliary police and the power of "Green and company."

Week end disturbances in various parts of Ireland included the killing of three constables and the wounding of three sergeants, besides a stampede of a Jesuit congregation in Dublin, resulting in several persons being injured, caused by firing outside the church. The people rushed from the church on hearing shots fired at individuals who were held responsible for throwing three bombs at a lorry containing Crown forces travelling on the Drumcondra road. Women and children were trampled on.

Dublin Castle reported unsuccessful attacks on the Dublin and Gouborne barracks Saturday night. Head Constable Storey was shot dead and a sergeant was wounded while they were returning from church this morning at Castle Island, County Kerry. Constable Frederick H. Deerpole, Coolgarney, County Wexford, was shot and killed and a sergeant was wounded in an ambush at Inch, in that county.

Searches were carried out last night and this morning in the eastern district of Cork, a total of eight arrests being made. Explosions, apparently of hand grenades, occurred in Cork yesterday during the curfew hours.

A two hour engagement between a section of Crown forces approaching Knappagh Mountain and an ambushing party was reported from County Cavan this morning, the encounter resulting in the dislodgment of the ambushing force, of which one member was killed and nine others taken prisoner.

A party of police cyclists was ambushed near Gorey, County Wexford, yesterday. One constable was killed and a sergeant was wounded.

PREMIER DESIGNATE
DISCUSSES ULSTER

Says It Has Been Political Shuttlecock Too Long.

By the Associated Press.

BELFAST, May 8.—Sir James Craig, Premier Designate of Ulster, whose recent conference with Eamonn de Valera is still the subject of much comment, in speaking at Lisburn, said that he had made it plain to the south and west of Ireland that it was not with amateur peace makers and mediators in Irish affairs they had to deal, but with the leaders of the people of Ulster, if there were to be any peace negotiations.

"Far too long," said Sir James, "have the Ulster people been the shuttlecock of English and Irish politics. It was really time that the one man who was entitled to do it stood completely forward and said: 'Handle off Ulster unless you come to me as the leader.'"

One good effect of his meeting with De Valera, continued the Premier Designate, was that the ice was broken. The more he thought of it the better he was pleased, knowing that no matter what they said of Ulster she was looking forward to the future "of our common country." Sir James invited the Premier of the dominions to attend the inauguration of the "youngest colony."

ITALY TO HONOR UNKNOWN.

ROME, May 8.—Presentation of a bill to the new Parliament asking for an appropriation to defray the expense of burying an unknown Italian soldier in a pantheon adjacent to the tombs of Italy's Kings has been decided upon by the Council of Ministers.

CORK CONSTABLE SLAIN;
REPRISALS ON YOUGHAL

Crown Forces Loot Town
Where Three Were Shot.

CORK, May 8.—Constable Sterland was shot and killed this evening while leaving his hotel. He was attired in citizen's clothes at the time. The shooting of two former soldiers and a woman Saturday morning after a dance at the barracks in Youghal led to unofficial reprisals Saturday night, when Crown forces went through the streets and broke windows and looted shops. The people of the village were terror stricken.

RESENTS BEING CALLED
CROWN PRINCE'S FRIEND

Mlle. Desserey, Linked With German, Asks Damages.

New York Herald Bureau, Paris, May 8.

An action has been filed by Mlle. Blanche Desserey, a member of a prominent family in Nancy, against the magazine, Mercur de France, that promises startling revelations regarding friendships developed by the German ex-Crown Prince during the invasion of France. The Mercur de France recently published a "war serial" called "The Butcher of Verdun," by Louis Dumur, wherein Mlle. Desserey was referred to as an intimate friend of the ex-Crown Prince, the magazine apparently supporting the charge with numerous details.

Mlle. Desserey has denied the truth of the charges and is asking 25,000 francs for damages to her reputation.

MIKADO'S HEIR LANDS
IN ENGLAND TO-DAY

Prince of Wales Will Escort
Him Ashore.

LONDON, May 8.—Elaborate entertainments in honor of Crown Prince Hirohito of Japan, who arrived at Spithead yesterday, were held to-day aboard the Queen Elizabeth, flagship of the Atlantic fleet. The battleship Katori, on which the Prince is travelling, will enter Portsmouth harbor to-morrow morning, accompanied by her escort, the battle cruiser Kashima (both ships belonging to the eight-eight Japanese naval programme). The Prince of Wales will escort him ashore.

It is the first time the Crown Prince of Japan has left his own country and that England has had an opportunity to entertain a member of the royal family of her Eastern ally.

COUNTESS OF CLARE
LEGALLY IDENTIFIED

Declared to Be Blanche Leigh in Bankruptcy Case.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD.
Copyright, 1921, by THE NEW YORK HERALD.
New York Herald Bureau, Paris, May 8.

The Paris courts have decided, after arguments lasting a week, that the Countess of Clare, widow of Sir Herbert Crocley, is the same person as Blanche Leigh, a Paris perfumer, who was declared a bankrupt twenty years ago and whose creditors are still unsatisfied.

The Countess employed the most brilliant legal talent here, including Henri Robert, and still denies that she is Blanche Leigh. She will make an appeal.

SEEKS HARDING'S AID
IN GREEK FINANCES

Bank Director Asks for Official Conference.

ATHENS, May 8.—M. Makinos, director of the National Bank of Greece, is endeavoring to arrange a conference between Premier Gounaris and Edward Cappa, the retiring United States Minister to Greece.

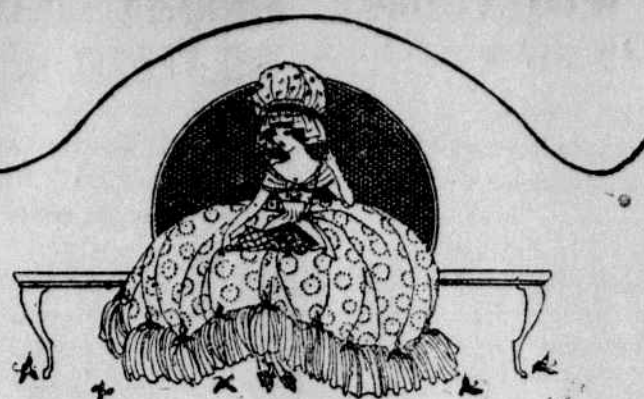

The belief is expressed that M. Gounaris desires Prof. Cappa to take to the United States with him a message to President Harding concerning American recognition of King Constantine and financial support by the United States.

STATE WORKERS WIN STRIKE.

Italian Ministry Increases Wages and Employees Return.

ROME, May 8.—Several hundred state employees who have been striking for some days marched to various ministries and the central post office and voiced their grievances.

The Council of Ministers decided to grant them wage increases pending discussion of increased salaries by the new Parliament, whereupon the employees announced that their strike would be called off.

Your Bank

How much do you use it?

RECENTLY in analyzing our list of depositors, we were surprised to find how relatively few use the full range of business services which are at their disposal.

The fault may be our own in not making these services more definitely known.

If you use us merely as a place to keep your checking account, we suggest that the business counsel of our Credit Department is at your disposal. We are in constant daily touch with factors affecting the financial side of business such as markets, banking trends, credit, transportation and foreign trade conditions.

If you come to us occasionally for information about your investments you may find use for the business counsel of our Foreign Department on your exports and imports.

If on your travels you use Columbia Trust Company Letters of Credit, you may also call on us for broad opinions on the outlook in your particular field of industry.

How you can use us

1. Investment Information

We hold ourselves ready at all times to submit investment facts to our depositors. Having no securities of our own to sell, the information we give is free from self-interest.

2. Broad Range Business Counsel

Being in close touch with markets, business trends, credit and transportation conditions—factors affecting the financial side of business, our depositors often find our advice of practical value.

3. Credit Information

Business men among our depositors often find our Credit Department able to supply credit information difficult to obtain promptly elsewhere.

4. Information on Foreign Trade

Our Foreign Department aims to advise and accommodate our depositors on almost every side of their business dealings overseas.

5. Letters of Credit

Those whose business or pleasure takes them out of the country find marked advantages in our letters of credit. Our foreign representatives cover the principal points throughout the world.

THE above advantages, available at our nearest office, are at the disposal of our depositors and others seeking a sound banking connection.
